Come unto me,
all ye that labour and are
heavy laden,
and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke
upon you, and
learn of me;

for I am meek
and lowly in heart: and ye
shall find rest
unto your souls.
Matt-11:28

The Vast Tapestry of Life

We stand alone, for a long while, overlooking the bridge that spans eternity. Choices and decisions are but faint traces of struggle as life goes on. They fade behind us and new events replace the old ones. Yet the journey continues, places changing, people merging and separating, fears and joys blending in and out to form the tapestry of life. A tapestry is not made of single strands of material, all alike. Neither is life as it wends its way along, gathering up souls, some to create sadness and pain together others to share joy and laughter. Yet they all form the designs, intricate, delicate and profound, that make up the vast tapestry we call life.
